Divisible Remainder is the Jane Phillips Award Exhibition 2015; Mission Gallery's Swansea International Festival's Exhibition 2015 and coincides with Ffotogallery's Diffusion International Photography Festival, all of which take place in Swansea and Cardiff during October 2015.

Divisible Remainder brings together a new collection of works by the artist Ryan L. Moule.

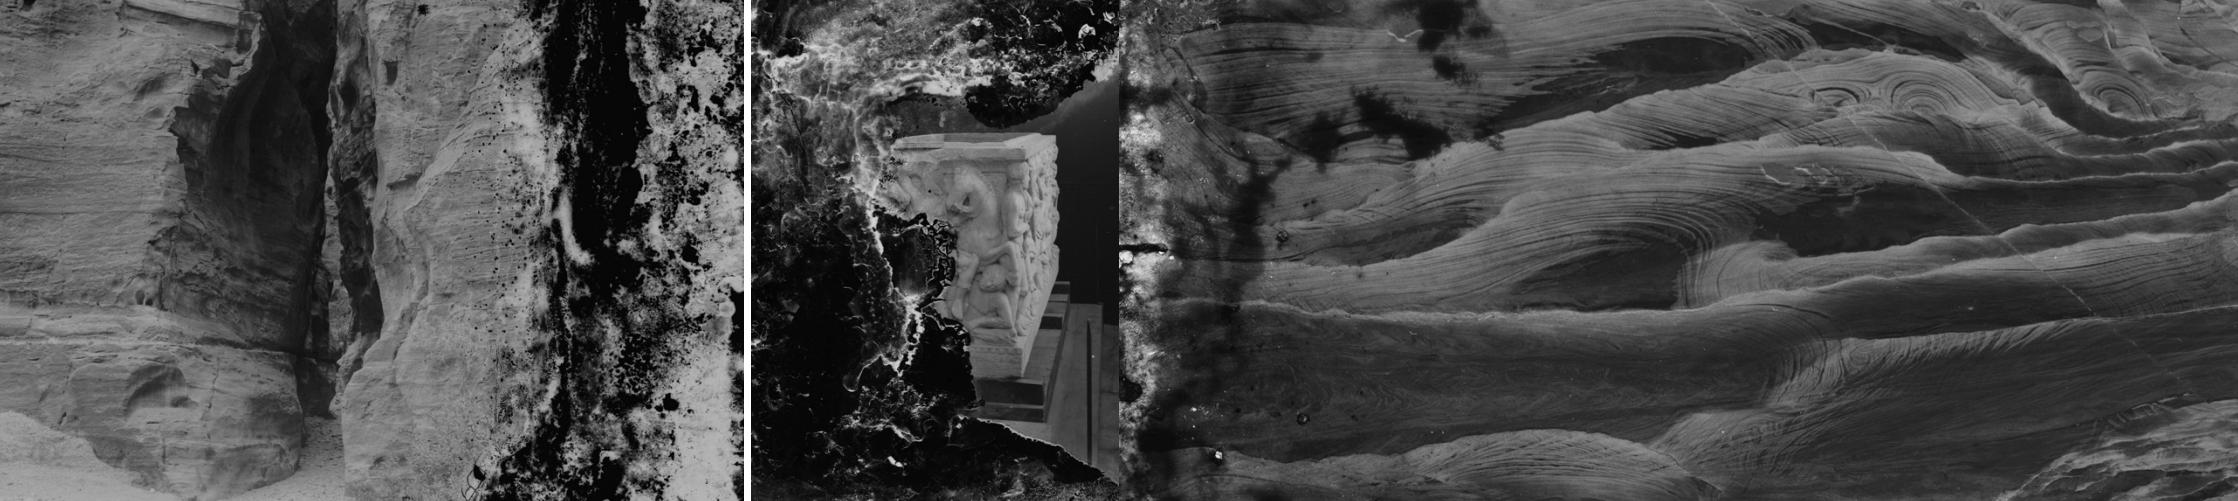

When Edward Snowden's hard drives were destroyed by the Editors of The Guardian newspaper, under the watchful eye of the British Government Spy Agency, the physical container of information was seen to be the source of leaked information.

The deconstruction of the hard drive was little more than a symbolic gesture, but what was brought to the foreground was how quickly and how buried virtual information is across a plethora of both physical and non-physical platforms. The resistance of digital information to being destroyed is the premise of this new body of work.

Taking the (restored) deleted fragments of an anonymous external hard drive as its starting point, Divisible Remainder questions the fractured contexts produced by intangible systems of information storage. The original content of the hard drive does not appear within the works, but its context is transferred, hauntologically engrained in the new images that are produced. By fracturing any sense of complete narrative foreclosure, the work seeks to create a subjective discourse in the absence of the original. Meaning becomes complicated through the metanarratives of re-enacted photographic fragments and situations, within the architecture of the exhibition space.

Daw Divisible Remainder â chasgliad newydd o waith yr artist Ryan L.Moule at ei gilydd.

Pan ddinistrwyd hard drives Edward Snowden gan olygyddion papur newydd y Guardian, dan lygad wyliadwrus Asiantaeth Ysbio Llywodraeth Prydain, gwelwyd y cynhwysydd ffisegol o wybodaeth fel ffynhonnell
y gwybodaeth gollyngol.

Roedd dinistrio'r hard drive dim mwy nag amnaid symbolaidd, ond beth ddaeth i glawr oedd pa mor gyflym
a sut mae gwybodaeth gudd ddigidol ar draws plethora o lwyfannau ffisegol ac anffisegol. Gwrthladd gwybodaeth ddigidol i gael ei ddinistrio yw sail y corff newydd o waith yma.

Gan gymryd y darnau gwaredol (wedi'u hadfer) o hard drive allanol anhysbys fel pwynt dechrau, cwestiyna Divisible Remainder gyd-destunau tor wedi eu cynhyrchu
o systemau anghyffyrddadwy storio gwybodaeth. Mae cynnwys gwreiddiol yr hard drive ddim i'w weld yn y gwaith, ond trosglwyddir y cyd-destun, wedi'u hargraffu yn y delweddau newydd. Wrth dorri unrhyw nod o flaengaead naratif cyflawn, mae'r gwaith yn edrych i greu cydymddiddan goddrychol yn absenoldeb y gwreiddiol.
Daw dealltwriaeth yn gymhleth trwy feta naratif y darnau ffotograffig a sefyllfaodd toredig ail-actiol, o fewn bensaerniath y lle arddangos.

Events

An exciting weekend of activities proving that everyone can have a safe, fun night out in Swansea.

To mark Swansea's Purple Flag Weekend
'Light Night', (2, 3 & 4 October) Ryan L.
Moule, in collaboration with Alex Duncan,
will project against the exterior of Mission Gallery from 7.30 - 10.30pm on Friday 2 and Saturday 3 October. This is a site specific work, relating to the buildings history.

Swansea International Festival Lunchtime Talks
1pm - 2pm Tuesday 6 October • Free
Tracey McNulty, Head of Cultural Services,
City & County of Swansea

In a time of unprecedented pressure on the public purse, the Service faces immense challenges, and without new and innovative models and ways of working, tough decisions may need to be made. Here, Tracey McNulty, Head of Cultural Services at City and County of Swansea, outlines the Council's strategy for how Swansea will continue to benefit from its diverse mix of cultural activity – a vital source of income and prestige to the city – in the difficult times we face. A unique opportunity to hear about and discuss the roadmap that will lead us into the city's cultural future. www.swanseafestival.org

Judith Rees • Maker in Focus

8 September – 11 October 2015

Maker in Focus

Maker in Focus promotes and supports excellence in Applied Art, through the profiling of talented Makers.

Gwneuthurwr mewn Ffocws

*Yn hybu a chymorth
arbenigrwyd yng Nghelf
Gymhwysol, trwy broffeilio Gwneuthurwyr talentog.*

This new body of work, created for Mission Gallery's Maker in Focus, takes the artist's Post Pop project in a sombre new direction.

Judith Rees uses the material of clay to realise her minimalist sculptures. She enjoys the 'taking' of packaging from supermarkets as a free item. By casting the box into a solid mould and re-figurating it into a wall mounted sculpture it is no longer a disposable container. The work encourages the viewer to examine what we throw away.

Mae'r corff newydd o waith yma, wedi ei greu ar gyfer Oriel Mission yn ehangu prosiect Post Pop yr artist mewn cyfeiriad newydd tywyll.

Defnyddia Judith Rees y defnydd o glai i amgyffred ei cherfluniau minimalaidd. Mwynha 'cymryd' pecynnau o archfarchnadod oedd fel eitem am ddim. Wrth gastio'r bocs mewn mowld solid a'i newid i gerflun wâl nid yw yn gynhwysydd tafladwy bellach. Anoga'r gwaith y gwylwr i archwilio beth daflwn i ffwrdd.

Sally Waterman • The [...] Space

8 September – 11 October 2015

'February' (2011) traces the artist's catamaran journey to the Isle of Wight to attend the funeral of a family friend, with the fleeting seascape becoming representative of her loss. 'Wisdom' (2013) documents Waterman's familial relationships, and the changing seasons over a three-year period through a stop-frame animation. 'Against' (2014) plays with the perception of family memory through a series of repetitive gestures, performed by the artist as she attempts to embody the projected images she took of her grandmother, just before she died twenty years ago.

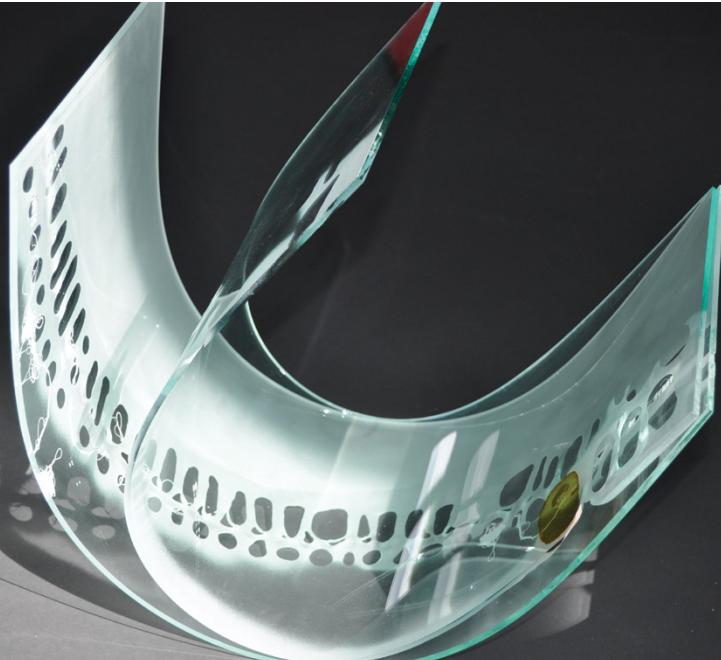

Dilyna 'February' (2011) daith catamarán yr artist i Ynys Wyth i fynychu angladd ffrind i'r teulu, gyda'r morlun diflanedig yn cynrychioli ei cholled. Dogfenna 'Wisdom' (2013) berthynas teuluol Waterman, a'r tymhorau newidiol dros gyfnod o dair blynedd trwy animeiddiad stop ffrâm. Chwaraea 'Against' (2014) gyda chanfyddiad atgof teulu trwy gyfres o ystumiau ailadroddol, wedi eu perfformio gan yr artist wrth iddi geisio ymgorffori'r delweddu prosiectol gymrodd o'i mamgu, cyn iddi ddarfod ugain mlynedd yn ôl.

Catherine Brown • Maker in Focus

13 October – 15 November 2015

Catherine is interested in structure, materials and making, often crossing and mixing the use of materials, especially ceramics and textiles. She draws influence from the structure of other materials in the production of glass sculpture.

Mae gan Catherine ddiddordeb mewn adeiladwaith a deunyddiau. Yn ei gwaith newydd ar gyfer Gwneuthurwr mewn Ffocws, archwiliau potensial gwydr wedi'i ffurfio ag odyn fel cyfrung i gyfleo breuder a chryfder.

Catherine is interested in structure and materials. In her new work for Maker in Focus, she explores the potential of kiln formed glass as a medium to express both fragility and strength.

She works with tension and balance within the forms as a way to express her personal and emotional state. She enjoys the movement of natural light across the glass forms that continually changes shadows and reflections, some harsh and striking others soft and subtle. These contrasts echo the often ambivalent feelings expressed in her work.

Gweithiagyathensiwnachydwyseddofewnfurfaufelfforddigfleu ei meddwl personol ac emosynol. Mwynha symudiad golau naturiol dros ffurfau gwydr sydd yn newid cysgodion ac adlewyrchiadau'n barhaus, rhai'n wydna thrawiadol ac erailllyn feddal a chraff. Adeisia'r gwrtgyferbyniadau yma'r teimladau aml ambifalent yn ei gwaith. Gwelir diddordeb Catherine yng ngherflunwaith, deunyddiau a gwneud, yn aml yn croesi a chymysgu defnydd y deunyddiau, yn enwedig cerameg a thecstilau. Mae hi'n cymryd ysbrydoliaeth o strwythur deunyddiau eraill yng nghynhyrchu cerflunwaith gwydr.

Trywydd . Voyage • Bird-Jones & Heald • the [...] space

13 October – 15 November 2015

Last summer Bird-Jones & Heald filmed material inspired by collectively viewing significant architectural glass sites, artists' studios and museums throughout France during the 2014 Women's International Stained Glass Workshop. The Film captured visual details, including figures silhouetted against illuminated backdrops, hand gestures, composite interiors, changing landscapes and emerging patterns. Supported by Arts Council of Wales & Wales Arts International.

Haf diwethaf ffilmiodd Bird-Jones & Heald ddeunydd wedi ei ysbrydoli gan edrych ar lefydd pwysig i wydr pensaerniol, stiwdios artist ac amgueddfeydd ar hyd Ffrainc yn ystod Gweithdy Ryngwladol Gwydr Lliw i Fenywod 2014. Mae'r film wedi dal manylion gweledol, gan gynnwys ffifyrau cysgodol yn erbyn tirluniau goleuol, ystumiau llaw, tirluniau mewnol, tirluniau newidiol a phatrymau dangosol. Wedi ei gefnogi gan Gyngor Celfyddydau Cymru a Chelfyddydau Rhyngwladol Cymru.

Part of this body of research focused on the Welsh artists taking part: Amber Hiscott, Catrin Jones, Chris Bird-Jones & Karen Heald. Trywydd . Voyage explores the intimacy, quality, nuances, details, sensitivity and beauty of the Welsh centric aspect of this journey.

Telling Tales: Sculptural Ceramics by Anna Noël

21 November 2015 – 10 January 2016

Exhibition

The Language of Clay: Part One comprises three solo exhibitions of work by three Wales based, female ceramic artists, all with a pivotal dynamic in contemporary ceramics. Notably, the work of all three engages with humanity. All of the exhibitions will be accompanied by accessible programmes of engagement.

The Language of Clay: Part One continues with Micki Schloessingk, whose exhibition opens at Mission Gallery in summer 2016, and then with an exhibition of work by Anne Gibbs in 2017. The full series tours to venues across Wales.

Anna Noël's work is motivated by narrative. Her figurative pieces explore interaction between the animal and human worlds, often drawing on myth and legend. Anna's enigmatic ceramic sculptures present a seeming simplicity. Yet they often encompass symbolism and mysticism, evoking intrigue distinctive of her practice.

Anna Noël is both invigorating and consolidating her practice through research and development integral to producing a new body of work for this major solo exhibition. The Language of Clay project affords an opportunity to see Anna's work in a different realm and on a different scale. Presenting this solo exhibition, Telling Tales, allows Anna significant focus to create a body of work that is cohesive and representative, enabling an immersive context for audiences to explore her creative world.

As with all the exhibitions in The Language of Clay, Telling Tales is a chance to advocate and share Anna's work with new audiences. It tours to several venues across Wales and is accompanied by engagement activities.

Mae Anna Noël yn delio gyda naratif. Archwilia'i gwaith ffigurol y cyfnewid rhwng byd anifail a dynol, yn aml yn edrych ar fytholeg a chwedlau. Cyflwyna cerfluniau cerameg Anna symlrwydd ymddangosedi. Ond maent fel arfer yn amgylchynu symbolaeth a chyfrinedd, gan ein hatgoffa o gudamcan nodweddidiadol ei hymarfer.

Mae Anna Noël am ddadflino ei hymarfer drwy ymchwil a datblygiad arwyddocaol i greu corff newydd o waith i'r arddangosfa unigol fwyaf yma. Rhy'r prosiect 'Iaith Clai' gyfle i weld gwaith Anna mewn tir ac ar raddfa holol wahanol. Wrth gyflwyno'r arddangosfa unigol yma, Adrodd Straeon, rhy ffocws arwyddocaol i Anna greu corff o waith sydd yn aduno ac adrithiol, gan alluogi cyd-destun trochol i gynulleidfaedd i archwilio ei byd creadigol.

Gyda phob arddangosfa yng nghyfres 'Iaith Clai', cyfle yw 'Adrodd Straeon' i bledio a rhannu gwaith Anna gyda chynulleidfaedd newydd. Mi fydd yn teithio i nifer o sefydliadau eraill ar draws Cymru a'i gynorthwyo gan weithgareddau ymrwymol.

Sian O'Doherty • Maker in Focus

17 November 2015 – 10 January 2016

Sian O'Doherty is an award winning textile artist and designer located in Pembrokeshire, West Wales. Taking inspiration from the natural beauty of her home landscape.

Sian designs and hand makes each product personally ensuring unsurpassed attention to the smallest of details.

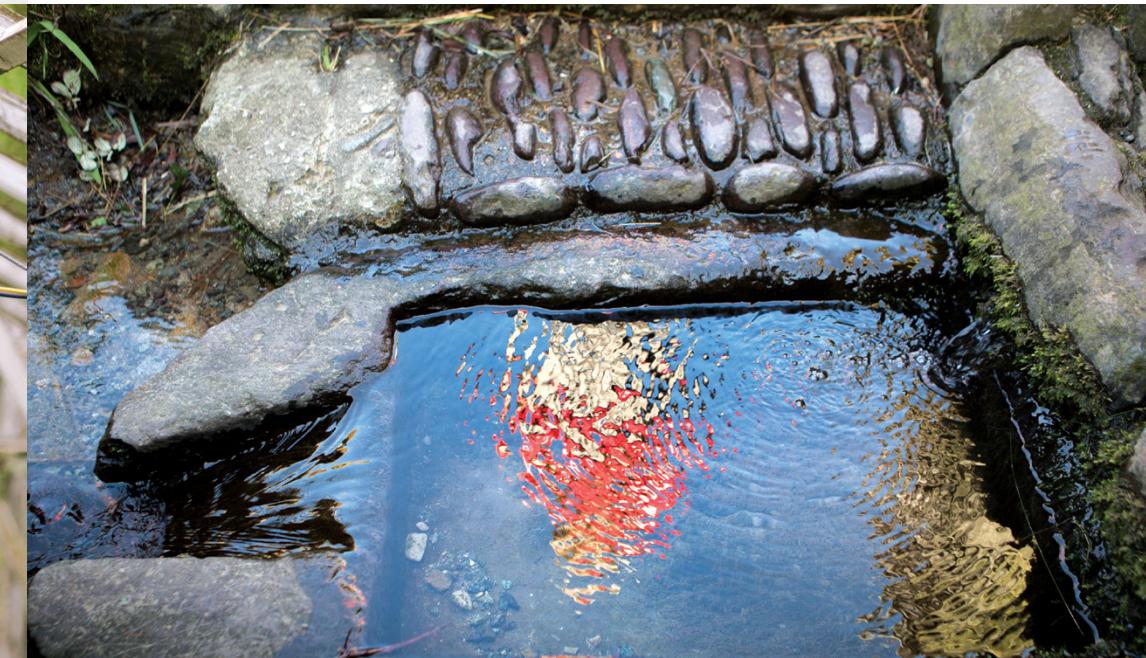

Using a hand powered knitting machine and the highest quality lambswool, each piece is carefully washed and dried giving a beautifully soft and tactile fabric. All materials are sourced in the UK and customers can be assured that sustainability and traceability has and will always be paramount in Sian's choices.

Dylunia Sian a gwneir â llaw pob darn yn bersonol gan sicrhau sylw difaeddlyd i'r manylyn lleiaf.

Gan ddefnyddio peiriant pŵer llaw a gwlân oen o'r ansawdd orau, mae pob darn wedi ei olchi a sychu'n ofalus gan adael ffabrig meddal a chyffyrddol. Mae'r deunyddiau oll wedi eu tarddu yn y DU a gall cwsmeriaid fod yn siŵr o gynaladwyedd a tharddle, sydd yn holl bwysig i ddewisiadau Sian.

Eva Bartussek • the [...] space

17 November 2015 – 10 January 2016

'The Minutes' presents a documentary portrait of two women's repeated visits to St Non's Well on and around the Saint's feast day.

The work explores notions of patience, fertility and social history. A video loop emphasises the process of editing this photographic body of work, experimenting with diptychs, sequences and temporal rhythms.

Cyflwyna 'The Minutes' portread ddogfen o deithiau ailadroddol dwy fenyw i Ffynnon Santes Non ar ac o amgylch diwrnod gwledd y Santes.

Archwilia'r gwaith syniadau o amynedd, ffrwythlonrwydd a hanes cymdeithasol. Pwysleisia'r fideo cylchol y broses o olygu'r corff ffotograffig yma o waith, gan arbrofi gyda diptychau, dilyniad a rhythmâu amserol.

Eva Bartussek is a photographer who is interested in expanded notions of portraiture within a photographic context. Eva is also a Photography Lecturer at Swansea College of Art, University of Wales Trinity Saint David.

Mission Gallery is at the cutting edge of applied art, craft and design. It is renowned for excellence; selecting contemporary craft and design objects for the established collector to the first time buyer. Presented within an art led environment; where the best of local, national and international makers and designers can be found.

The curated environment presents a changing display of contemporary ceramic, glass, textile, jewellery and design from both established and emerging makers and artists. It provides opportunities for artists/makers to engage with the visiting public and assists the development of the region's cultural sector whilst also providing an income stream and opportunity for artists to establish their creative career in Wales.

And with Christmas fast approaching, why not think ahead and invest in that 'perfect' gift!

Mae Oriel Mission ar linell flaen celf gymhwysol, crefft a dylunio. Yn adnabyddedig am arbenigrwydd; gan ddethol gwrthrychau crefft a dylunio cyfoes i'r casglwr sefydledig a'r prynwr cyntaf. Wedi eu cyflwyno mewn amgylchedd celf, lle mae'r gorau o wneuthurwyr a dylunwyr lleol, cenedlaethol a rhyngwladol i'w darganfod.

Cyflwyna'r amgylchedd curadurol yma arddangosfa newidiol o gerameg, gwydr, tecstil, gemwaith a dylunio cyfoes o wneuthurwyr ag artistiaid sefydledig ac ymddangosedig. Darpara gyfleoedd i artistiaid/gwneuthurwyr gysylltu gyda'r cyhoedd ymweleddedig a chefnogi datblygiad sector diwylliannol yr ardal wrth ddarparu llinell incwm a chyfle i'r artistiaid yma sefydlu eu gyrfaoedd creadigol yng Nghymru.

A gyda Nadolig ar y trothwy, beth am feedwl o flaen llaw a buddsoddi yn yr anrheg 'perffaith' yna!
